The future of our Jewish community depends on our educated and committed youth. It is the goal of TBI Brotherhood and Sisterhood to raise funds for the youth of TBI in which the bulk of those dollars are distributed through Camperships. This process is kept confidential between the committee and the Rabbi of TBI. We encourage our Temple youth to get involved and strengthen their Jewish identity, and URJ approved camps are a great way to do just that.

Requirements

1. Financial need.
2. Actual involvement in TBI (parents & children).
3. Attending an approved Jewish camp strengthening Jewish identity.
4. Completing and returning the Campership / Grant request form within the time frame allotted.
5. A letter from the child who received the Campership / Grant, on how attending a Jewish camp / program impacted their life. (No names will be announced.) If no letter is received we will keep this in mind when awarding next year's funds.

Considerations:

1. Actual funds available.
2. Total number of applicants.
3. Financial need of family.
